Book of James

James 2:10-13; For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all. For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder" Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So, speak and so do as those who will be judged by the law of liberty. For judgement is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

*Sin is not simply balanced against good—it must be _____ and _____

*You can't break the law a _____; if you Have broken it _____, you need Christ to pay for your sin.

*But God's law was not written with " _____ "
And " _____ " commands so that obedience
to some outweighed obedience to others.

*As Christians, we are saved by God's free gift through _____ not by keeping _____

*God's grace does not _____ our duty to obey Him; it gives our _____ a new basis.

*Obedience must also be a _____, a habit.

*But His law is not a _____; instead, it sets
us _____ because we are _____ out of Joy.

*Only God in His _____ can _____ our sins.

*This is an excellent statement of New Testament ethics: What we do to _____ we actually do to _____, and He returns it upon our heads.

*If we have been _____ toward others, God
can be merciful _____.

*If it is _____ it is not _____

*One of the tests of the _____ of our
_____ is how we _____ other people.
