Book of James

James 5:17-18; Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

* _____ is indeed _____.
remember Elijah? The story is found in 1 Kings 17.

*All that happened in Elijah's life began with the _____ miracle that is _____ to us---he responded to the miracle of being _____ to _____.

*Instead, God displayed His _____ in a _____.

*God has work for us to do even when we feel _____ and _____.

Some of the lessons we can learn from Elijah's life are Lessons from his life.

We are never closer to defeat than in our moments of greatest victory

We are never as alone as we may feel; God is always there

God speaks more frequently in persistent whispers than in shouts.

James uses Old Testament people to illustrate each of his major themes;

The nature of faith is found in the lives of Abraham and Rahab (James 2:21-25)

Perseverance is exemplified by Job (James 5:11)

Effective prayer is exemplified by Elijah (5:17-18)

*These lives are _____ to us. They are _____ to be _____.

*He had _____ that _____ was the _____.

*He was not _____; in fact, right after his victory on Mt. Carmel, Elijah became _____ and _____ and _____.

*You cannot separate the _____ of _____ And _____, for in His Word He gives us the promises that we claim when we pray.

*Prayer power is the _____.

In the world today.

*One of the great lessons of the Book of James is that
